TEACHERS' CLUB

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO SECURE NOMINEES FOR OFFICES

Members of the Glendale Teachers Club met at the Intermediate School Tuesday afternoon with Miss Clara Midcalf, president, in the chair.

A committee to prepare a slate of nominees to be voted upon at the annual election which will occur in the near future, was chosen composed of Mrs. Ryan, Miss Jackson and Mrs. Curtis.

A report was submitted of night school sessions which are being conducted by members of the Intermediate and Cerritos Avenue schools Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Miss Berry being principal of such work at Cerritos and Miss Jackson at the Intermediate, the curriculum covering English, arithmetic, writing, spelling and naturalization. The schools are open to both Americans and foreigners and a present enrollment of about eighteen was reported, with more coming in as news of the schools is disseminated among those who need and desire such instruction. A letter from the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations commending the teachers for their unselfish work in this line was read at the meeting. The report also stated that two men who are attending the naturalization class on Tuesday evenings would be glad to come Thursday also, but unselfishly remain at home to mind the children and give their wives a chance to attend. Some of the men in the class will receive their final papers in a short time.

The fourth number in the entertainment course, to take place next Tuesday evening, was announced. Miss Esther Rhoades, who, though a young girl, is the most distinguished harpist on this coast, will furnish the program.

LIKED GLENDALE'S LOOKS

Rev. Adam Holm, who is a contemporary of Rev. Edward Hoskyn of this city, visited Glendale Wednesday to call upon his old friend who at one time was a member of the same conference to which Mr. Holm belonged in Iowa. He did not find Mr. Hoskyn at home so will come again, but meantime called at the office of the Evening News to express his admiration of Glendale, this being his first visit to our city.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN C. GOSS HERE

John C. Goss and wife of Henderson, Iowa, arrived last night and are guests in the home of William Goss of 318 East Harvard Street. They have come on account of the serious illness of R. D. Goss, who has been in ill health for some time and failing.

GLENDALE DAY

A joint committee meeting of representatives of the four Masonic bodies was held at Masonic Temple Tuesday evening to arrange for Glendale Day at the Masonic Orphans' Home at Covina, which is set for "Mothers' Day," in May. It is expected that 75 or 100 families will make the trip this year when the orphans are to be entertained by Glendale Masons.

HAVE WISH AT LAST

PARKHURST D. CORY SELLS IN HOLLYWOOD, BUYS IN GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst D. Cory lived for a number of years in Hollywood, where they owned a beautiful home which they had built from their own plans and under their personal supervision. But both had had a longing for some time to live in Glendale, Mrs. Cory says, particularly her husband, who liked the beautiful surroundings and the pure clear atmosphere. They drove over many times and looked at places offered by agents but found nothing to suit. Finally they were about to give up in despair, when, seeing a "For Sale" sign on the house at 820 South Central Avenue, they stopped to investigate, found it suited them and soon concluded a bargain for it. They had sold the Hollywood property so were free to move to Glendale as soon as possession could be secured. So now Mr. and Mrs. Cory and their 10-year-old daughter are satisfied citizens. Mr. Cory is connected with a building company in Los Angeles.

NEAR NATURE'S HEART

MRS. D. W. CUNNINGHAM MOVES TO NEW RANCH HOME

When, a few months ago, Mrs. D. W. Cunningham of 612 North Orange bought a five-acre tract of land on the north side of Sixth Street about half way between Pacific and Grand View avenues, she determined to make of it an ideal country home with all city conveniences. There was a tumble-down old house on the place and little else. She secured the services of E. D. Yard, one of Glendale's well-known builders, and outlined her plans to him. These have been faithfully carried out. The old house was raised and a strong foundation put under it, high enough to provide a commodious basement. A side stairway leads up to the floor level from the west and a wide porte cochere has been built on this side, under which the driveway to the garage passes. The roof is upheld by strong pillars resting on square brick supports. A porch with brick foundations and front wall will extend along the south front. The house is of seven rooms and has been entirely remodeled and modernized. From its front windows there is a beautiful view to the south and southeast, taking in near-

PINK AND GREEN PARTY

Mrs. R. L. McCourt of 336 North Central Avenue recently entertained a group of ten boys and girls with a pretty "pink and green" party in celebration of the eighth birthday of her little daughter Martha. The pink and green place cards which indicated the seats of guests at the smartly appointed table were as fine as any party company could wish, and green balloons were given as favors. Pink and green candies filled the bon bon dishes and other accessories were in keeping. Of course there was a birthday cake to match. The guests had a jolly time playing games and otherwise entertaining themselves, the party lasting from three to six. Those present were: Dixey Lane, Bettie Brown, Vivian Malone, Emma Torrey, Nancy Truett, Gordon White, Dewey McCourt, Willa Jordan of Los Angeles and Katherine Henry.

PENNSYLVANIA GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hoge and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graver, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard, have departed for their home in Philadelphia. They expect to return in the fall and permanently locate in Glendale. Mr. Reinhard is the monument dealer on Glendale Avenue. He and Mrs. Reinhard entertained last evening at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Anderson and Mr. Millhouse of Allentown, Pa.

ON ROOF OF WORLD

C. E. PECK'S NEPHEW, WELL KNOWN MISSIONARY, ON DANGEROUS QUEST

Five men, two of whom are well known to a number of Glendale people, have been much in the limelight recently on account of strange happenings on the "Roof of the World" as Thibet is often called. These five are Dr. A. L. (Bert) Shelton, for many years a medical missionary in China and Thibet, sent out by the Foreign Christian Missionary Society; G. E. Metcalf, an English missionary; Dr. Elliot Osgood, a medical missionary at Foo Chow, China, sent out by the same society as was Dr. Shelton; Frederick Smith, an American newspaper correspondent; J. P. Thornton, representative of Standard Oil and also an American. The three men last named undertook a long and dangerous journey into a wild region in the northern borders of Thibet in an endeavor to effect the rescue of Dr. Shelton and G. E. Metcalf, who had been captured by discharged

TREES FELLED FOR THE WOOD AND BRUSH

The long row of pine, cedar and fir trees extending west along the south side of Doran Street from J. R. Gray's place nearly to San Fernando Road has been cut down during the last few days by men working under the direction of L. T. Rowley for the county of Los Angeles. The trunks and larger limbs will be sold for wood and the branches used to fill in between the rows of piling on both sides of the Wash.

WESEL CAPTURED BY REDS

ARMY OF 20,000 SAID TO HAVE OVERCOME 6000 TROOPS SUPPORTING EBERT GOVERNMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WESTPHALIA, March 25.—Leaders of German Red forces today announced the capture of Wesel, northwest of Essen, which was besieged by Red armies for several days. The Reds refused the government's offer of an armistice. Fighting continued all day yesterday. The Reds captured Friederichsfeld. Other forces have reached the river Lippe, twenty miles north of Essen. The communists were in complete control of the Red armies, the communique said. Earlier dispatches said that Wesel was held by six thousand Reichswehr troops supporting the government of President Ebert. The attacking Reds are said to have numbered 20,000.

GLENDALE MOTORCYCLIST INJURED

LOUIS YOUNG OF COLORADO STREET STRUCK BY AUTO DRIVEN BY BURBANK MAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, March 25.—Struck by an automobile driven by C. S. Hughes of Burbank, while he was standing beside his motorcycle on San Fernando Road near Dayton avenue, Louis Young, 26 years old, of 422 Colorado street, Glendale, was seriously injured. He was taken to the receiving hospital and treated for severe scalp lacerations.

FIGHTING CONTINUING IN GERMANY

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE PERSONS KILLED IN THURINGIA DISTRICT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 25.—More than 175 persons were killed in fighting between communist workmen's forces and German government troops in the Thuringia district near Gotha, a dispatch received here today said. One red army was said to have surrendered unconditionally. The communist chief escaped.

POSSIBLE INVASION OF GERMANY

ALLIES MAY INTERVENE IF GOVERNMENT TROOPS ARE UNABLE TO RESTORE ORDER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 25.—Allied military intervention in the Ruhr industrial district will follow if the German government troops are unable to restore order, it was learned here today. The allies will grant full permission to send as many troops into the district as Ebert wishes. If the Teuton armed forces cannot restore order, then the allied forces will take charge.

COAL TO COST MORE

PUBLIC TO PAY $100,000,000 MORE TO MAKE UP FOR THE INCREASED WAGES TO MINERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, March 25.—Increased coal prices will cost the American public over $100,000,000 annually when government control of coal prices ceases April 1, coal operators predicted today. The jump in price will be caused by increased wages now being paid the miners and to make up for further increases to be granted them, the operators declared.

GERMAN OUTLOOK HOPEFUL

FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE BELIEVES SITUATION WILL SOON BE NORMAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 25.—Advices to the French Foreign Office today indicated marked improvement in the situation in west Germany. The military crisis is regarded as past. The Foreign Office messages showed that the dispute largely centered in the workingmen's demands for reforms including the socialization of basic industries. Following the receipt of dispatches reporting an agreement reached between government emissaries and workmen's representatives, the foreign officials believed the situation would be restored to normal rapidly.

EARNINGS OF U. S. STEEL

RETURNS LAST YEAR SAID TO HAVE BEEN $300,000,000 LESS THAN IN 1918

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, March 25.—The gross earnings of the United States Steel Corporation last year were $1,448,557,835, the lowest since 1916 and approximately $300,000,000 less than in 1918

PIONEER RESIDENT

WM. G. WATSON, WHO DIED YESTERDAY, CAME TO GLENDALE IN 1885

Wm. G. Watson died Wednesday, March 24, at 11:45 a. m. after an illness of ten days of toxine poisoning, complicated with other diseases. The funeral services will be held tomorrow, 2 p. m., in the First Methodist Church, Dr. Clyde Monroe Crist officiating, assisted by Rev. C. R. Norton. The G. A. R., of which he was an honored member, will conduct the services at the grave. Pulliam & Kiefer will be in charge.

Wm. G. Watson was born in Yorkshire, England, December 4, 1841. He was brought up as a coal miner, so when he came to America at the age of 19, he went at once to the mining regions around Pittsburg, Pa., where he worked in various mines. He enlisted in a Pennsylvania regiment during the Civil War and when mustered out was in the South, so he went to Houston, Texas, and located near there. He was married there on August 20, 1872, to Miss Alice Nelson. Two sons, James I. and Thomas W., were born there; also a daughter, who died in infancy. In 1878 the fam-

BURGLARY AT THOM RESIDENCE

Cameron Thom of 303 North Isabel reported to the police that thieves, supposed to be boys, entered his house from the rear last night, evidently using a pass key, as the door was locked, stole all the provisions they could find, also $2.75 in change from an overcoat pocket.

MRS. W. L. HENDERSON HERE

Mrs. Susie Henderson, who with her husband, W. L. Henderson, was a resident of this city for eighteen or twenty years on Geneva Street, and who has just returned from a six months' visit in the East, is now a guest in the home of Mrs. A. D. McCoy of 1127 East Wilson Avenue. After visiting with her many friends here she will return to her home in Long Beach.

CLASS REUNION

DRS. JULIA WHITE AND FLORENCE KELLER ENTERTAIN MEDICAL ALUMNI

Dr. Julia White of the Glendale Sanitarium and Dr. Florence Keller of 311 North Jackson Street, classmates from the American Medical Missionary College of Chicago, now affiliated with the Chicago College of Physicians and Surgeons, gave a class reunion at the home of Dr. Keller last Tuesday evening to members of their class living in Southern California. This renewal of acquaintance after twenty years' separation and the exchange of reminiscences made the evening a most pleasant one.

Dr. Lillian Magan of White Memorial Hospital, Dr. Jean Vernier Bell of Detroit and Carlton Fry, now a prominent architect of Los Angeles, were among the guests. There were also present Dr. P. T. Magan, dean of Loma Linda Medical College; Dr. P. M. Keller, Dr. C. H. Bell, a past member of the Michigan State Board of Medical Examiners; Miss Marian Hughes, a recent arrival from New Zealand, and Miss Frances Keller.

The home of the Doctors Keller was prettily decorated for the occasion, the class colors, gold and white, predominating. Marguerites and orange blossoms were among the flowers used.

COMMITTEE CONFERENCE

A meeting of members of a volunteer committee to support the candidacy of Mrs. Ann Patrick Bartlett for the office of City Trustee was held at Glendale Union High School Tuesday evening to talk over the canvass and arrange to get the voters out on election day. A partial list of committee members includes: Mesdames John Robert White, E. D. Yard, Mattison B. Jones, Ella Richardson, Dr. Jessie Russell, E. U. Emery, Stephen Packer, Harry Greenwalt, C. M. Turck, E. V. Bacon, E. W. Kinney, Ralph Meeker, Charles Temple, Miss Eva Daniels and Miss Cora Hickman.

WEATHER FORECAST: Unsettled weather. Probable showers tonight and Friday.

MANY FRUIT TREES

SMALL GROUND SPACE ACCOMMODATES WEALTH OF FRUIT BEARERS

Among the small and productive clusters of fruit trees surrounding Glendale homes that of H. E. Bartlett, 347 North Brand Boulevard, should not be overlooked. There are ten Valencia orange trees, which netted $112 for their owner last season and $75 in a previous year; five peach trees, one an Imperial, the fruit of which ripens in July, one a Salway, coming in as late as October, a Foster and an Early Crawford; a Satsuma and a Tragedy plum tree, a Kadota white fig tree, a nectarine, a grapefruit and an avocado. Mr. Bartlett is very enthusiastic over the possibilities of the latter fruit as an income producer and wishes he had more room so he could set out a large number of trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett settled in Glendale in 1906, coming here from Pomona, acquired several lots at the corner of Brand and Third, as it then was, and built the home they still occupy. They gradually sold off their holdings but held on to the residence property. The trees were selected with great care and their growth looked after very closely. Mr. Bartlett says he was fooled on his fig tree, buying it for a White Smyrna, but he says the Kadota is superior in some respects to the Smyrna, so he is satisfied. The first crop, which sets in early spring, never amounts to much, but beginning generally in August the fruit grows large and begins to ripen. From then on till cold weather picking of ripe fruit goes on constantly while the new figs set, then ripen in their turn, making the tree very profitable.

LENTEN LUNCHEON

GLENDALE BUSINESS MEN ENJOY EATFEST AND TALK CHRISTIAN SALESMANSHIP

A challenge to the Christian men of this community was sounded yesterday noon at a gathering of Christian laymen. This luncheon was held as part of a nationwide effort of the Interchurch World Movement. Roy L. Kent has been appointed chairman for this district. "Take some one your size," is being adopted as a slogan in many cities over the entire country in urging men to openly acknowledge Christ as their Saviour among their own business and professional associates.

The men of this community are urged to cultivate Christian conversation, and in doing this to use the same methods any salesman should employ, to first study the approach and then, as we say in business, "sell him" the blood of Jesus Christ as the only sure remedy for sin; "there is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." This special effort is being made leading up to Easter, which has been termed "Join the Church Sunday." The example must be set by the Christian laymen for, "as church officials go, so go the churches."

Nathan Rigdon yesterday took out building permits for two six-room houses, each with a garage, one to be located at 359 and the other at 375 Patterson Avenue. The cost of each is given at $4000.

HOUSE WARMING

MRS. J. T. CRAMPTON OPENS NEW HOME FOR FOUR O'CLOCK TEA

Mrs. J. T. Crampton welcomed a few friends to her pretty new home at 325 West Burchett Street Wednesday afternoon to enjoy a four o'clock tea. Mrs. Storleder of Denver, Colo., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Wells, of West Broadway, was the guest of honor and presided at the tea urn. Gorgeous marigolds furnished a brilliant note of color on the tea table and were otherwise disposed about the living room. It was quite an informal gathering to which the guests brought their fancy work, the only entertainment being a few games. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Grace Crampton. Guests present were: Mrs. Storleder, and Mesdames R. H. Wells, R. E. Downing, C. E. Stanley, George Ely, C. R. Hallett, George Bristow, Charles Miller, H. B. Howeth, M. Meibergen and H. J. Horn.

NEMATODES

WORD OF WARNING FROM INSPECTOR MARLEAU ABOUT ROOT KNOT

J. B. Marleau, Horticultural Inspector, is calling attention to the serious and growing loss to horticulturists from nematode or what is commonly known in orchard stock as "root knot," though it is not confined to fruit trees but affects other trees, shrubs and plants. The office of "Pest Control" of the Department of Agriculture, State of California, has issued a bulletin of warning, which declares: "The planting of nursery stock affected with root knot will not only inoculate the soil with a serious disease, but will be a source of continual loss to the orchardist in the future. Before planting, all trees should be inspected. Plant only clean nursery stock!"

The nematode of the potato, commonly known as "potato eelworm," renders the tubers, though still edible, very unattractive. Each black spot found in them contains a number of minute worms. The bulletin declares: "Such potatoes should never be planted. Great care should be exercised in disposing of the peelings since the soil can be inoculated by throwing the peelings in the back yard or feeding them to stock and thereafter the crops will suffer. Only clean seed should be planted to prevent the spread of this pest!"

Mr. Marleau states that there is no known remedy for this disease. A bulletin of the Bureau of Plant Industry, quoted in a recent issue of the Evening News, describes a method of disinfecting small quantities of soil in which to grow healthy seedlings for the home garden. By a series of experiments it was found that an application of boiling water at the rate of seven gallons per cubic foot of soil in shallow benches practically eliminated the parasites of root knot nematodes and certain parasitic fungi usually associated with root troubles, but the boiling water remedy is not very practicable on acreage. It is, however, a good thing to remember when growing seedlings.

FRIEND GARDEN

One of the best friends you will have this year will be that lil old garden spot in the rear. Spade 'er up and see what a world wonder it is, if you do not already know. For every bite it produces you can make a face at the aggregation who are holding you up on your eats bills If every fellow who has a garden spot would do a little farming on it this year there would be thousands of profiteers who would get what is coming to them. Besides the savings, there would be the satisfaction of knowing that you were taking a fall out of the gang that is filling your life with big bills.

Personals

Miss Eleanor Mellin of North Brand Boulevard has been quite sick of tonsilitis but is better.

E. W. Hubbard is having an addition built to his house at 1215 Dorothy Drive. It is expected to cost him $300.

Mr. Green, who recently bought the R. C. Goudie place at 458 West Maple, is adding a room to the house at a cost of $325.

I. Cline yesterday took out a building permit for the erection of a five-room residence and a garage at 343 Milford Street, to cost $4000.

Mr. Gara of East Harvard Street, of the mechanical department of the local Ford Agency who went to Detroit on business connected with the automobile business some time ago, is expected home about the first of the month.

Mrs. A. W. Cannady of Pekin, Ill., has just arrived in Glendale and decided that she wants to take possession of the house she owns at 436 West Harvard Street. It is quite a disappointment to her tenant, Mrs. J. T. McClammy, to be asked to give up the property.

Mrs. J. N. McGillis of 1003 East Lomita Avenue with her son, Newton, is leaving Friday for Phoenix, Ariz., to visit her husband who is now in business there. She plans to be gone about three weeks and Newton will remain and come home with his father in the summer.

A reading by Zona Gale, the celebrated story writer and novelist, was given at a general assembly of High School students Wednesday forenoon at which the auditorium was filled. Her program included a Friendship Village story of the demobilization of the Red Cross, and a shorter number, "Being Good to Letty."

L. K. McGregor, who formerly lived on Windsor Road and who is now residing at 604 South Glendale Avenue, is disappointed because he is going to be compelled to move again. The property he has been occupying has been sold to Miss Hansel of Los Angeles, who is developing a flower farm and who desires possession.

Miss Anabel McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McClellan of 126 North Central Avenue, recently had a light illness wrich developed into mumps, but she has entirely recovered and is back in college. Mrs. Boyd of Long Beach and Mr. Crapnell of Aledo, Ill., who is spending the winter in California, were recent guests in the McClellan home.

Wm. Van Osdoll of 341 West Elk Avenue says he made an auto trip Monday and Tuesday out through the San Gabriel Valley and up around San Fernando and never saw finer fruit and crop prospects than were evident on all sides. He looks for this to be a banner year for all kinds of foodstuffs. At one place along the Foothill Boulevard his machine ran for a mile through water up to the body.

W. P. McIntosh of North Glendale, who is vice president of the Mentone Groves Company, spent Wednesday in Mentone, which is about three miles above Redlands, and which has some very fine citrus orchards. While there he sold 15 acres belonging to the company partly improved with 29-year-old trees to a Los Angeles buyer who also has realty holdings in North Glendale. He reports an excellent market for orange groves at Mentone and vicinity, one tract of forty acres of eight-year-old trees having been recently sold for $40,000, and another of twenty-six acres for $85,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Mason of 625 North Maryland have been entertaining Mr. Mason's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Long, of Akron, Ohio. They are here for the winter and the reports they have received of storms in the city they left have made them feel that they were very fortunate to be here. They have been enjoying California's brand of weather very much and have been looking in a tentative way for a place to buy in which to spend their winters. They do not want to cut loose from business and family interests in the East, but would like to spend a part of year here. Mr. Long is connected with mantle and tile manufacturing works.

Mrs. D. F. McKinney of 1259 S. San Fernando Road is entertaining this evening with a dinner in celebration of the birthday of her husband. Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Gill, Wesley Miller, Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, their daughter, Miss Leta McKinney, and their grandchildren, Bettie and Wesley Gill. Their father is in the Imperial Valley so will not be able to join the family gathering. A feature of the feast will be a handsome birthday cake. Following the dinner members of the party will spend a social evening together.

A whole train load of eggs left for the east from Petaluma, the chicken town up north, the other day. What a grand omelette it would make if it were wrecked.

"PERSONAL PIETY"

STRONG ATTACK ON RATIONALISM BY REV. J. L. MAILE AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Easter-tide services were opened at the Congregational church last evening with a sermon by Rev. John L. Maile of Los Angeles.

Mr. Maile stated that next Sunday he will complete fifty years in the Christian ministry. He is still in the active pastorate and speaks with much vigor and force.

The sermon was a strong attack on rationalism and destructive criticism and an earnest plea for personal piety and fellowship with the personal Christ. The speaker declared that we should know, first, the Christ of history; second, the Christ of experience and third, the Christ of hope.

Earthly friendships come as a result of contact and intimacy. It is in this same way that men obtain divine fellowship. Tonight Dr. E. P. Ryland will speak. Theme: "An Upper Room Experience." The attendance last evening was very gratifying.

ENDORSEMENT OF DAN CAMPBELL

Through various channels the impression has been given that Dan Campbell is not a candidate for reelection on the Board of the High School Trustees. This is entirely untrue. The solicitation of his host of friends who know his integrity and business standing and realize the value of experience in handling the many critical issues now confronting the school, caused him to agree to become a candidate to succeed himself on the High School Board. The following is self-explanatory.

To the Voters of the Glendale Union High School District:

We, the undersigned, citizens and residents of the Glendale Union High School District, recognizing his years of devoted service to, and his genuine interest in our schools, hereby unqualifiedly endorse the candidacy of Dan Campbell for reelection on the Board of High School Trustees and request the residents of the district to exercise their franchise at said school election, which is called for Friday, March 26, 1920.

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST PHYSICIANS ADVOCATE TRAINING OF GRADUATE NURSES

Training of graduate nurses for public health service among Seventh-day Adventist parochial schools and the training of dietitians to teach the principles of right diet were advocated by the convention of Adventist physicians for the Pacific Coast which closed its meetings at the College of Medical Evangelists in Loma Linda Tuesday. A resolution was unanimously adopted requesting the trustees of the college to provide for the organization at the White Memorial Hospital, in Los Angeles, of a Summer School for the special training of a select class of graduate nurses for school inspection and public lecture work.

One physician declared that in examining the school children of a certain Eastern city she found 60 per cent physically defective, having adenoids, unsound teeth, bad tonsils, defective eyesight or other physical difficulty. Every local conference of the Seventh-day Adventists in California, Arizona, Nevada and Utah will hereafter employ a trained nurse to visit its schools, and to assist in conducting schools of health in the various Adventist churches.

READING CIRCLE

REPORTS SHOW LARGE AVERAGE ATTENDANCE—WILL MEET AT CITY LIBRARY

The Mutual Benefit Reading Circle met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll who submitted her yearly report. It showed that at fourteen meetings there was an average attendance of 63 and that 342 visitors had been welcomed. Mrs. Knauss was awarded the book which the Circle offered for the one who should bring the largest number of guests.

The program included two interesting reviews. Mrs. Brown reviewed articles on teachers' salaries covering conditions in other states and told how P.-T. A.'s had brought about changes. Mrs. Wernette reviewed an article entitled "The College Yesterday and Tomorrow." It made comparisons showing radical differences in college work and ideals. In speaking of the college of today President Wilson was quoted as saying: "The sideshows are so numerous that those in the main circuit have been swallowed up and do not know what is going on."

The Circle began the reading of its new book, "The Development of the Child," by Nathan Openheim.

Mrs. Toll announced that she will go East in May to be gone about two months so the Circle will be compelled to meet elsewhere. Mrs. Danford had offered the use of the Juvenile Room in the City Library and meetings will begin there next week with Mrs. Toll in charge.

Plans were laid to hold the annual picnic and birthday celebration together the last week in April at the home of Mrs. Toll and the following committees were appointed:

Program—Mrs. Cotton, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. C. H. Parker, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Peckham.

Luncheon—Mrs. Florence Kurtz, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Aicholz, Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Comfort, mother of the author, Will Livingstone Comfort, was a guest at the Circle. She is making her home with Mrs. Minette Sherman.

ENTERPRISING CONCERN LAUDS EVENING NEWS

Messrs. Frederick Hayes and C. E. Battey of the Poultry and Pet Stock Exchange, 142 North Brand Boulevard, evidently believe in the advertising value of the Evening News, as their full column ad today indicates.

The manager of this enterprising concern said to a News reporter today: "Glendalians have been clamoring for an exchange where they could market their surplus thoroughbred poultry and pet stock, and we are giving it to them. And I want to say that Glendale has responded handsomely. We feel certain that this grand reception will be in the nature of a continuous performance, as this firm insists on giving more than a dollar's worth for every dollar spent in their store. The advice in our "ad" about Easter Bunnies is well worth thinking over. I don't know how we should have called Glendale's attention to our wares without the News. It certainly circulates, and is producing tangible results."

New poultry and pet animals are being added daily to the stock of this wide-awake concern, and their showroom is always interesting and well worth a visit.

In an auto collision on the boulevard from San Diego, an Eastern society belle lost a hand bag containing $20,000 worth of jewels, and is greatly agitated about it. We didn't suppose that the loss of $20,000 worth of jewels would cause any worry to any one who could afford to own that many.

LOVES OUT-DOOR LIFE

CHARLES ELLSPERMAN PREFERS RANCH HOME TO BUSTLING CITY STREETS

Twenty-seven years ago Charles Ellsperman and wife left the old home in Minneapolis, Minn., and came to the new land of promise, Southern California. Mr. Ellsperman was a painter and decorator back there and when he got to Los Angeles he became a contractor in these lines. Two years after his arrival he bought ten acres of land on a beautiful hillside overlooking the San Fernando Road, the Los Angeles river and Griffith Park's towering hills just beyond, meaning some time to live out there. That time came 17 years later, when the Burbank car line was constructed. It runs just south of his acreage. So he built a comfortable house facing on Sixth Street and moved out there intending to stay a year or two and then go back to busy city life. But the charm of life in the open grew upon him and his wife and they stayed on. They favored joining Glendale when the annexation of the Grand View District came to be considered and they are now glad to be citizens of the "city of homes." Mr. Ellsperman had his acreage piped for irrigation years ago with a well 150 feet deep and a storage tank above it, but now he has city water and does not use the well. When the big main is laid along Grand View Avenue and the distributing system put in to supply direct water connection, and the streets are lighted from the city current, which is soon to be, conditions on the farm will be ideal. At present Mr. Ellsperman gets city water through a neighbor's connections, which is not quite as satisfactory as the direct flow will be. He and his wife are very much in love with their country-city home and its surroundings and have an abiding faith in the future of Grand View district, which has already attracted the favorable notice of experienced horticulturists, with the result that two tracts, one of ten and the other of 20 acres, have already been set aside for flower, fruit and vegetable culture.

They are not intending to tie themselves to ranch life, however, but are planning, as soon as the lights are shining along Sixth St. and the water rushing through the new Grand View district distributing system, to plat the greater part of their acreage into lots with 100-feet frontage. They are very much interested in the Monterey Road extension as it is planned to run along the southern border of their acreage and are prepared to render it substantial aid.

PIONEER RESIDENT

ily moved to Pasadena and in 1885 to Glendale. Some time later Mr. Watson opened a meat market near the corner of Verdugo Road and Sixth Street, now Colorado. His son, Thomas, was later associated with him in this business, which reached large proportions Five wagons were used and the trade extended as far as San Fernando. When the frame building at the corner of Glendale Avenue and Broadway was erected, the market was moved into the room now occupied by the Glendale Pharmacy. The business was sold about ten years ago and a little later the father and son started a nursery business. They conducted this until city official duties compelled the son, T. W., to retire, when the other son, James I., took his place. Deceased was sick only ten days and worked in the nursery as long as he was able to stand, as he was never content to be idle. He was a devoted member of the Methodist Church since his thirteenth year, and was regarded as one of the mainstays of the congregation of First Church, Glendale. He is survived by the two sons, his aged widow and four daughters—Mrs. F. H. Reed, of 118 North Adams, Mrs. J. A. Peebles of 522 South Belmont, Miss Alice of 126 North Cedar and Mrs. M. Turner of 126 North Cedar.

ly all of Glendale, Griffith Park, the San Fernando Valley and the hill portion of Los Angeles. Back of the house, in the northwest corner of the yard, is a new garage with work and storeroom attached, and in the northeast a cozy little four-room house, new, which will be occupied by two colored women who work for Mrs. Cunningham. The houses all have every convenience except gas and this will come later.

The houses are all set near the rear of the tract and in front of the main dwelling is a wide expanse which will be set to a variety of trees. Mrs. Cunningham moved out the ranch home last Saturday, occupying the little cottage in the rear, as the main dwelling is not yet completed. A friend, Mrs. F. J. Steele, will stay with her until she is ready to move into the big house. She took care to provide for daily visits of the Glendale Evening News, so as to keep posted on affairs in the city.

Stops Medicine—Health Recovered by Internal Baths
Mr. A. Czarnecki, 657 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:
"I must admit that the use of the 'J. B. L. Cascade' has cured chronic constipation from which I suffered. Since May 12, 1913, I have never even tasted any kind of patent medicine or purgative. My health is excellent in every respect."
Over half a million bright, keen, intelligent Americans have found that Internal Bathing is more essential to their health than external baths—
Have found that used occasionally at night they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous feeling, but having by nature's own cleanser—antiseptic warm water—removed all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting properly, clear headed, happy and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.
Why not learn more about this rapidly growing and natural practice? The "J. B. L. Cascade" is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, a specialist on internal baths for 25 years, and is now being shown and explained by Roberts & Echols in Glendale, who will give you—free on request—an interesting booklet on the subject called "Why Man of To-day Is Only 50% Efficient."

ON ROOF OF WORLD

Chinese soldiers and held as hostages to force their own reinstatement in the army. Dr. Shelton was released before the three self-appointed ambassadors had a chance to negotiate and it is reported that they have been successful in securing the release of Mr. Metcalf.

Dr. Shelton is known to quite a number of Glendale people, who heard with absorbing interest his recitals of adventures in "the forbidden city," Lhassa, Thibet, when he appeared before a gathering in Los Angeles in 1913 that was fostering the "Men and Millions" movement in the Christian churches of America.

Dr. Elliot Osgood is a nephew of C. E. Peck, the jeweler, who lives at 114 South Louise. His parents brought up Elliot and his two brothers after the death of their mother, which occurred when Elliot was 4 years old. All three boys were given school and college educations. One became a practicing physician in the home town, Kent, Ohio, another a medical home missionary and Dr. Elliot a medical missionary in China. The scene of his early labors, 22 years ago, was in Chu Cheo, 40 miles northwest of Nanking. He came back to America on his first furlough, after eight years' work, full of a project to establish a hospital at Foo Chow. He collected sufficient funds to start it on his return and he carried the project to a successful completion so that 3000 patients a year have been treated there for several years past.

Mr. Peck is greatly relieved at learning that his relative has returned safely from his dangerous mission. Dr. Osgood's wife and the three children have been in the homeland for a year past, she coming back to educate the boys for the ministry in Hiram College. Dr. Osgood is the author of a very interesting and widely read book entitled "Breaking Down Chinese Walls."

W. C. T. U. ANNUAL MEETING

The Glendale Woman's Christian Temperance Union held their annual meeting in the Lutheran church last Friday in an all-day session.

The business sessions were conducted in the church and at noon a bountiful and appetizing luncheon was spread in the nearby parsonage, by the hospitable hostess, Mrs. R. W. Mottern.

The reports of officers showed gratifying growth and activity of the Union. Eight new members were received that day, making 25 for the year, and bringing the membership up to 150.

The treasury was reported in good condition with a fair amount for the Jubilee Fund. The president's address was an earnest appeal for continued and faithful service in the organization.

She said in part: "This is the most joyful annual meeting we have ever held. Why? Because of the achievements of the great epoch-making period for morality which has culminated the past year in national prohibition, including war prohibition and the almost complete attainment of national suffrage. Well may it be called the 'Victory Year.'

"For almost a half century we have battled and prayed that the great evil of intemperance that has been so thoroughly entrenched within the law of the land, with its great power dominating every phase of life, should be abolished and the captives of drink set free. It may have taken a world war to open the eyes of some who would not see, and we realize that God worked in mysterious ways his wonders to perform and that through all these years of effort He has been behind the movements for righteousness and sobriety in the land.

"But some say, 'now that prohibition is attained why continue.?' Never in the past almost fifty years has the W. C. T. U. broken ranks, and now in this crucial time of unrest in our own land and the world is no time to demobilize our forces but rather to buckle on the armor more securely.

"While rejoicing over the great blessing that has come through the enactment of the Eighteenth Federal Amendment we realize that unless it is enforced and guarded it may be wrenched from us by unscrupulous foes who are trying in every way to nullify and destroy its influence.

"President Lincoln once said:

"'Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in the schools, in seminaries, in colleges, let it be written in primers, spelling books, and in almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpits, proclaimed in legislative halls and enforced in courts of justice and in short, let it become the political religion of the nation and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all the sexes and tongues and colors and conditions sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars.'

"This wise pronouncement is just as applicable and needful today as when it was first spoken. In our own fair state we need to watch carefully that the men who care not for the best interest of humanity, but for their own selfish greed shall not jeopardize legislative action of the past and prevent good legislation in the future through the prevention of the passage of the Harris bill, which is said to be 'The most vital thing within California's political horizon.' The Harris law does not raise the question of wet or dry, but, does California wish the constitution of the United States discredited or upheld? Are the people of this state law-abiding or law-defying? Let us be awake to this situation.

"Also while rejoicing over the victories won let us remember that the object of the W. C. T. U. is three-fold, protection of the home, abolition of the liquor traffic and the triumph of Christ's golden rule in custom and law. There are yet many dangers that menace home life and the Golden Rule is far from the thought or action in our courts of justice. No, the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is far from being completed. Space will not allow further discussion. Let us be true to our principles and to our God."

The election of officers resulted in the unanimous re-election of the president, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, Mrs. O. S. Palmer, treasurer, and Mrs. Guy Morton, recording secretary. Mrs. Marie Yeoman was chosen for vice president and Mrs. Jennie Mottern corresponding secretary. Announcement was made of the coming Los Angeles County convention to be held the third week in April to be entertained by the Glendale Union in the Methodist Church.
